

Have you heard of the CCCE? “Triple C-E”

Canadian Community of Corporate Educators

Who We Are:

We are an association of training representatives from corporations and vendors.

Our Mission:

To share knowledge about the blend of education and technology to make the member community more effective.

What We Do:

- Present on current topics relevant to training, communications, technology and industry trends.
- Presenters represent all variety of industries and often are key thought leaders from their respective field of learning and development.
- Network to discuss trends, solutions, best practices and get great practical advice.

What’s in it for you?

- Learn up-to-date information about current training methods and trends.
- Build relationships with other member companies.
- Exchange knowledge to obtain input, feedback and solutions for your specific requests in a fun and welcoming environment.
- Share information and resources to reduce research time and to contribute to cost effective education.

Be Our Guest:

- We meet monthly, at different locations across Toronto and the GTA from 8:45-11am.
- Come to our next meeting and experience the benefits first hand. Our compliments!
- Get to know us: share information, networking with our membership and learn something new.
- Bring along your business cards!

Membership:

- It is an investment for you and your organization.
- The annual fee covers all colleagues from your organization who wish to attend.
- Participants benefit from a wide variety of topics and speakers.

For more information contact CCCE admin at: info@ccce.on.ca

Attend Our Next Meeting:

Date: Wednesday, March 22, 8:45 - 11:00 am

Topic: Fuel your Learning and Development Programs with Employee Opinion Data

Location: Schulich Executive Education Centre, 222 Bay St, Suite 500, Toronto

Register: www.ccce.on.ca

Join the discussion: CCCE LinkedIn